Subpart A—Purpose and Scope

§ 638.100 General.

(a) Purpose and scope. The purpose of this part is to delineate the policies, rules, and regulations that govern the operation of the Job Corps program, authorized under title IV-B of the Job Training Partnership Act (Act). Job Corps is one of the broad range of programs for youth authorized by the Act. Job Corps centers are located in both rural and urban areas and provide training, education, residential and a variety of other support services necessary to prepare students to become more responsible, productive, and employable. (Section 421)

(b) Job Corps Policy and Requirements Handbook. The policies and procedures required in this part which are to be established by the Job Corps Director shall be contained in a policy and requirements handbook which shall be incorporated by reference in each contract or agreement to operate a Job Corps center, program, or entity.

(c) Definitions. Definitions for terms used in this part are found in section 4 of the Act and in subpart B of this part. Statutory authority for the regulations in this part is found in section 169(a) of the Act (29 U.S.C. 1579(a)). Applicable statutory provisions, including sections of the Act other than section 169(a), are noted parenthetically in this part.

Subpart B—Definitions

§ 638.200 Definitions.

In addition to the definitions contained in section 4 of the Act, the following definitions apply to programs under title IV-B of the Act and under this part:

Absent Without Official Leave (AWOL) means the absence of a student without official leave. For purposes of tort claims, federal employees' compensation, pay status and leave accrual, a residential student is considered AWOL if AWOL for 24 continuous hours. A non-resident student is considered AWOL if AWOL for one full day of center training.

Act means the Job Training Partnership Act.

Allotment means:

(1) A portion of the readjustment allowance prescribed by this part, which portion is paid monthly during the period of service of a student directly to a spouse of the student, to the child(ren) of the student, or to any other relative of the student who draws substantial support from the student; and

(2) A supplement to the portion allotted by the student, made by the payment of an equal amount by DOL. (Section 429(d))

Allowance means a benefit provided by DOL to students by cash, check, credit, voucher, direct provision, or otherwise for such personal travel, leave, quarters, subsistence, transportation, equipment, clothing, recreational services, and other expenses as the Job Corps Director may deem necessary or appropriate to the students' needs. (Section 429)

Capital improvement means any modification, addition, restoration or other improvement:

(1) Which increases the usefulness, productivity, or serviceable life of an existing site, facility, building, structure, or major item of equipment;

(2) Which is classified for accounting purposes as a "fixed asset"; and

(3) The cost of which increases the recorded value of the existing building, site, facility, structure, or major item of equipment and is subject to depreciation.

Center means an organizational entity, including all of its subparts, providing Job Corps training and designated as a Job Corps center by the Job Corps Director.

Center Director means a center's chief official or the Center Director's designee.

Center operator means an agency or contractor that runs a center under an agreement or contract with DOL.

Center review board means the group at a center consisting of representatives from staff and students that reviews charges brought against students for infractions of center rules for which the penalty of termination might be imposed.

Civilian Conservation Center (CCC) means a center operated on public land under an agreement between DOL and another federal agency, which shall provide, in addition to other training and assistance, programs of work experience to conserve, develop, or manage public natural resources or public recreational areas or to develop community projects in the public interest.
